

ATA Rail – Civil Engineering Recruitment For Mainline and Underground Clients

ATA Rail's Civil Engineering division specialise in the provision of white collar engineers on a permanent and freelance basis covering mainline and underground rail networks throughout the UK and abroad. Our experienced and dedicated team have combined experience of over 30 years of recruiting in the rail industry and have built a reputation for quality, efficiency and delivery across our client base who include;

- Principle/Main Contractors
- Design, Project & Commercial Management Consultancies
- Sub-Contractors
- Train Operating Companies

Our Capability

The depth and breadth of skill and resources within the group enables ATA Rail to offer bespoke solutions in the following areas:

- Civil Engineering
- Construction
- Rail Infrastructure
- Building Services/M&E

ATA Rail has a proven track record in providing:

- Commercial/Contract Management
- Bid/Tender Management
- Project Management/Engineers

- Design Management
- Planners
- Estimators
- Site Management
- Civil Engineers
- Business Development
- Procurement
- RIMINI/Possession
- Office staff

As part of the RTC Group, ATA Rail combines 35 years of specialist technical selection with 75 years of rail safety training.

Organisation Structure

Operations management, compliance and training, and support services are managed in Derby. Delivery is managed from our satellite locations depending on our client's requirements. This structure is entirely scaleable by effective utilisation of our existing regional network.

ATA Rail draws on the full resources of our Group to support delivery to all clients including the utilisation of 70 recruitment staff across our 12 regional offices.

- | | | |
|--------------|--------------|-----------|
| • Glasgow | • Derby | • Fleet |
| • Newcastle | • Birmingham | • Slough |
| • Manchester | • Leicester | • Enfield |
| • Leeds | • Bristol | • Clapham |

As a dedicated rail industry recruitment specialist ATA Rail has extensive marketplace understanding allowing us to place candidates with clients in a fast, highly efficient and mutually beneficial fashion.

ATA Rail source candidates for permanent and contract roles throughout the UK and Worldwide.

Global Reach

Increasingly called upon to support client projects worldwide ATA has developed specialist rail recruitment capability covering permanent and temporary roles in;

- Design
- Project Management
- Systems Engineering / Integration
- Maintenance Engineering
- Civil / Structures Engineering
- Signalling Engineering
- Track Engineering
- Traction & Power
- Rolling Stock
- Health & Safety

Working with consultancies, operators, manufacturers and prime contractors delivering solutions to mainline, light rail and metro resource needs.

Supporting Safety and Diversity

ATA Rail is committed to protecting the health and safety of our employees /contractors and others affected by activity and work carried out by our staff.

We continue to drive improvements in health and safety performance throughout every contract we undertake, and have a systematic approach in place to help our recruitment teams understand risks involved with each project allowing them to employ teams that will effectively manage safety throughout.

We are committed to being an equal opportunities employer promoting diversity in the workplace.

Contact details:

ATA Rail
The Derby Conference Centre, London Road
Derby DE24 8UX
Tel: 0845 880 8112
Email: civils@ata-recruitment.co.uk